FAVIANNA RODRIGUEZ
The University of Arizona College of Humanities
Department of Public & Applied Humanities
Dorrance Dean's Award for Scholar/Specialist-in-Residence

Tuesday, October 24 • 7pm
Desert Symphony:
Mobilizing Creativity &
Stories For Social Change
Poetry Center
Catalyzing cultural power and creative expression is vital for building more sustainable futures.
Interdisciplinary artist, cultural strategist, and activist Favianna Rodriguez will discuss the themes of justice and joy in her work, which leverages the power of style and storytelling to challenge dominant myths.
Join us at 5pm for the unveiling of Desert Symphony, an on-campus art installation that reflects on the intersections of climate change and migration in Tucson’s unique ecological and cultural home in the borderlands.
Live stream available.
More information:
desertsymphony.arizona.edu

Saturday, October 21 • 9-11am
Cafeico with Favi:
Cultural Strategy for Creative Entrepreneurship
Luna y Sol Cafe
Latina entrepreneurs Favianna Rodriguez and Solena Barajas (co-owner of Luna y Sol Cafe) will host a conversation focusing on building community through arts, culture, and institution building.
Registration recommended.

Sunday, October 22 • 11am-1pm
Creative Ecologies:
Nature Walk & Cyanotype Workshop
Tumamoc Hill Boathouse
Take a guided nature walk around Tumamoc Hill and create cyanotype prints, harnessing the power of the sun to create works of art that reflect on the desert borderlands. Registration required.

Thursday, October 26 • 2-4pm
Creative Expression for Environmental Justice Poster Workshop
ENR2 room N604 (rooftop)
In this hands-on workshop, learn about the environmental justice movement and how to strategically utilize creativity and culture to re-shape narratives in the age of climate crisis. No prior artistic experience necessary! Registration required.

All events are free and open to the public.

More information:
desertsymphony.arizona.edu