PTSD: Flipping the Narrative on how we think of this under-identified issue

November 16, 2022
12PM to 1PM

About the speaker

I am a senior in the College of Public Health with an Emphasis in Health Systems Theory and Practice. After personal mental health struggles stemming from two independent traumatic sudden losses, I dove head first into the world of mental health advocacy. Hoping to bring awareness to both peers and professionals about what the modern face of PTSD looks like.
