

THE COPING, CONTEXT AND MAGIC OF MAKING DO

Thursday, April 22 @ 5PM (MST/ AZ local time)

In 2019, San Antonio-based artist Mark Menjivar published a multi-volume artist's book featuring migration stories from seven partnering institutions, including the University of Arizona Museum of Art. Participants in this virtual event will be invited to listen to recorded migration stories from the local community and to explore their own migration narratives. Each participant will receive a free copy of Menjivar's book and will be provided with instructions on how to pick up it up from campus. To purchase the full set, use this link. This program will take place live via Zoom and will be conducted in English. Virtual seating is limited; please register to reserve your seat.
